Promoting Interest In Numismatics

By P. H. CHASE
Philadelphia, Pa.

To the writer it has been a most forceful object lesson to observe the interest in exhibits in the field of numismatics, when they are accompanied by a brief description of the material, its historical background and reference to some of the most interesting items.

Hobby shows are one of the avenues through which people can be interested in numismatics. This has been demonstrated by the popularity of hobby shows encouraged by the company group with which I am associated.

I have from time to time entered exhibits and believe that a brief description of them may encourage other collectors to make similar use of conventions, meetings, exhibitions and hobby shows in their own locality. By submitting exhibits, interesting people and thus gaining recruits, new blood will be brought into our field, which is necessary for its perpetuation.

My most recent exhibit was a shield of United States fractional currency. To many people this would be a colorful exhibit and merely that. The award of first prize for my exhibit, I believe, was largely the result of attaching to the frame the following statement, typed and photographically enlarged to double size. The explanation of the origin of the shields, their purpose and comments on the interesting items, attracted attention and held interest that otherwise would be momentary or lacking:

Fractional Currency Shield.

Almost seventy years ago collections of thirty-nine specimens of United States fractional currency of the first three issues (1862-1869) were mounted on engraved mats and framed by the United States Treasury Department and distributed to banks, business houses, etc.

It is believed the purpose of these "Shields" was to facilitate the identification of genuine notes and the detection of counterfeits. On account of the continual appearance of counterfeits, several kinds of papers, new issues of different design and the withdrawal from circulation of earlier issues were resorted to.

The specimens are printed on only one side and show the fronts and backs of the various notes. The imprint "Specimen" on the reverse side sometimes can be seen through the paper.

Notes of the First Issue bear a replica of the 5-cent or 10-cent postage stamps of that period, an outgrowth of the use of stamps for small change when hard money disappeared from circulation after the outbreak of the Civil War.

The three-cent note (Third Issue) is the smallest denomination ever issued in paper money by the United States.

The five-cent note (Third Issue) bears the portrait of S. M. Clark, Superintendent of the Treasury. His assurance in thus using his portrait so stirred Congress that an Act was passed in 1866 prohibiting the portrait of any living person appearing on any notes or bonds. This Act is still in force.

The fifteen-cent notes bearing the portraits of General Grant and General Sherman were essays and were never issued because of this Act.

Autograph signatures of Colby and Spinner on some of the specimens are very rare in a shield. On notes issued for circulation, signatures were engraved, and the backs of all notes, except three denomination of the Second Issue, were green.

Another illustration of such an exhibit is a frame of Confederate States of America paper money, which was also given first prize at a similar hobby show. This exhibit consisted of eighteen notes of the Montgomery, July 25th, 1861, September 2nd, 1861, and 1862, 1863 and 1864 issues. The following explanatory remarks were included under the appropriate groups of notes:

General Remarks.

As a hobby, the paper currency of the Confederate States of America, issued from 1861 to 1865, has many interesting aspects. There are about seventy types of notes and many varieties, which offer a wide scope to both the general and the specializing collector. This is in the "numismatic" field of collecting. The notes make a very effective display and most of them are available at low cost. They have no value as a medium of exchange. The large number of notes and issues, and their interest-bearing and redemption provisions, trace the hopes and fortunes of the Confederacy through the four crucial years of our Civil War period.

Montgomery Issue.

These notes were issued at Montgomery, Alabama, the original capital of the Confederacy, which was moved to Richmond, Virginia, later in 1861. They were payable in twelve months and bore interest at 3.65 per cent. per annum. The $1000 and $500 notes are among the rarest of all Confederate notes. There were only 607 issued of each of these two denominations, and 1606 each of the two lower "Montgomery" denominations.

July 25th, 1861, Issue.

These notes were payable two years after date and were fundable in stock or bonds bearing eight per cent. interest. The quality of engraving and paper are generally inferior. The $5 denomination is called by collectors "The Manouvrier Note" and is one of the few Confederate notes for which in very fine condition a collector may pay more than face value.

September 2nd, 1861, Issue.

These notes provide for redemption "Six Months After the Ratification of a Treaty of Peace Between the Confederate States and the United States" but still are fundable in 8 per cent. stock or bonds. There are about twenty-five types of this issue. The portrait on the $50 note is of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy. The $10 note depicts General Marion's historic "Sweet Potato Dinner" (nothing but).

1862 and 1863 Issues.

These are notes of various issues in 1862 and 1863. The declining prospects of the Confederacy are illustrated by certain notes of the April 6th, 1863, issue, which provide for redemption "Two Years After the Ratification of a Treaty of Peace . . . ." Many of the designs on notes of this and other issues have allegorical or historical significance and include portraits and scenes of current interest.

February 17th, 1864, Issue.

The issue of February 17th, 1864, totaling nine notes, in denominations from $500 to 50c., was the last Confederate issue. All funding and interest-bearing provisions have vanished. During the closing months of the Confederacy these notes were issued in large quantities, the final stage of paper money inflation.

It is hoped that the citation of these two cases may encourage other numismatists to take advantage of the opportunities that often arise to acquaint the general public with the interesting features of our field. It is apparent that one of the important reasons for the rapidly increasing interest in stamp collecting is the publicity given to it by its advocates, wherever opportunity offers. Numismatists can well take a leaf out of the book of philately in making itself known.

REVIVAL OF PROOF COINS AT U. S. MINT.

After a lapse of more than twenty years, the custom of striking proof coins at the United States Mint is to be revived, according to news from Washington. A press dispatch says:

"Secretary Morgenthau has announced he had authorized the mint to resume the practice of issuing "proof" coins—pieces stamped from polished discs, which are regarded as near perfection. Proof coins, official said, are free of mechanical flaws, and are issued primarily as collection pieces and souvenirs. The practice of minting them was discontinued about twenty years ago.

"An extra charge will be made for the purchases of such pieces. A fifty-cent piece will cost twenty-five cents in addition to its face value, plus eight cents postage charges; twenty-five cent pieces will command an additional twenty-five cents; ten-cent pieces will cost ten cents additional; five-cent pieces will cost fifteen cents extra, and one-cent coins will cost fifteen cents additional.

"No 'proof' pieces of silver dollars will be made unless demand requires a substantial coinage later. It was understood at the Treasury that the resumption of such minting was ordered on a suggestion of Louis M. Howe, secretary to President Roosevelt, a few weeks before his death."

These prices show a considerable advance over the prices formerly charged for proof coins. The former price was $1 for the three silver coins and eight cents for the minor set.

Centenary of Royal Numismatic Society

Secrets That Coins Keep—And Tell

The value of the study of the science of numismatics in revealing fascinating metallic clues to past history, and to ages that had long since crumbled to dust, was briefly mentioned by Mr. A. Quinnell in a paper dealing with the centenary of the Royal Numismatic Society, 1936, read before the New Zealand Numismatic Society at a recent meeting.

After quoting passages from the Royal Charter giving reasons for elevating the society among scientific institutions, the speaker dealt with some phases of the study of numismatics which had materially helped to mirror past history. He instanced the confused chronology of India and pointed out how copper plates and coins with their interesting inscriptions had materially helped to throw some light on the dark history of that country. He reviewed various methods of dating adopted by various races down to the Christian era, and then mentioned the Mohammedan conquest of India 600 years later, when the coins of that country began to bear dates from the Hegira—A. D. 662—the date of Mahomet's flight from Mecca to Medina.

Mr. Quinnell pointed out that Eastern rulers who carved their way to power or to the throne usually, as a first act, issued coinage bearing their superscriptions to establish themselves in their new domains. These kings were today whilst their coins remained as mute evidence of their fleeting sojourn on this earth. If these coins could only speak, what a tale they could tell—a tale of the fall and sack of cities; of innumerable deaths, by poison, by assassination, and in battle; of murder plotted to gain possession of concealed hoards; of torture of owners of wealth to make them reveal the places of concealment! And what a tale they could tell of the hands through which they passed—poet and peasant, king and slave, courtesan and courtier, soldiers, sailors, buccaneers, perhaps as pay or loot, treasured by misers, squandered by prodigal sons, used for buying slaves, as bribes to obtain or defeat justice, to disgrace a rival, and in innumerable ways in the manner of the times! What sidelights on history these coins could throw! Today they remain silent in the collections of great institutions or in the cabinets of students and collectors of coins and medals.

Collectors of coins and medals are really custodians of history, for time has amply proved metal to be more enduring than stone. The printed word, of course, is gradually going to dust, and it would be difficult to say how many existing books would be readable in 300 to 500 years. After that short period, when the existing members of the society were "Dust unto Dust and under Dust to lie" the coins and medals in their possession would live on, to enrich other collections, and to bear mute testimony to our existence. Even then, as now, numismatics will remain a major branch in the study of archaeology.

The British Empire must fall—as all other empires and kingdoms have fallen—and perhaps in 2,000 years in New Zealand the sole remembrance of the late King George V, whose memory is now so vivid, will be a New Zealand coin in a local collection or jingling in the pockets of some person present; or may be the sole medallic recognition of New Zealand may go down to posterity in the shape of the society's Waitangi-Bledisloe medal which may interest numismatists of the future in a New Zealand ruled by a yellow or a black king, whose empire is greater than any before it. Who knows?

Mr. Quinnell was accorded a hearty vote of thanks for his paper.

WORLD NUMISMATIC CONGRESS.

At a recent meeting of the New Zealand Numismatic Society Mr. Allan Sutherland, F.R.N.S., reported that an International Numismatic Congress was to be held in London in June-July of this year, and that with the president, Prof. J. Rankine Brown, he had received a special invitation from the president of the Royal Numismatic Society to attend, as the meeting had been arranged in connection with the centenary of that society. Although four members of the society had been present in London last year, he did not know of any members likely to be present this year, and accordingly he suggested that Sir John Hanham, Bt., of Wimborne, Dorset, England, a foundation member of the New Zealand Numismatic Society, be asked to represent New Zealand. This was agreed to.

The Congress will be held under the auspices of the Numismatic Commission of the Comité International des Sciences Historiques, and apart from discussions of topics of general interest, and shorter papers, the work in general will be divided over the following sections—Greek, Roman, Medieval and Modern, British and Colonial, Oriental, and medals, and medallions.

Cashed In Hell! A Sidelight On Idol Worship

Some very interesting and unusual forms of money have been exhibited before the New Zealand Numismatic Society, but perhaps the most startling exhibit of recent times was a Chinese bank note, redeemable in Hades, exhibited by Mr. Harold N. Vivian, secretary of the China Inland Mission in Wellington, at the last meeting of the society.

In submitting the note Mr. Vivian explained that the note, which was used in idol worship, was one of countless thousands, printed with the same number, "4343," and purporting to be for 50$, redeemable at the "Silver Bank of Hades." The Chinese burn these notes before their idols in the belief that the idols will accept them at their face value. Merit in the next world is expected at 50$ a time. The note is attractively designed in two colors, black and red.

In accepting the exhibit Mr. Allan Sutherland stated that it was indeed an interesting sidelight on idol—or, as some might say, idle—worship, but it was interesting to observe the antiquity of Chinese customs, for historians claimed that bank notes existed in China 4,600 years ago, a very long time before the dawn of the Christian era, and before the adoption of Christian standards by which we now judge these Chinese customs. Evidently some Chinese knew how to "send money up in smoke" other than per medium of the opium pipe.

The note exhibited was apparently a counterfeit, printed, not for circulation, but merely to deceive the devil, and if a custom necessitated burning money, well, counterfeit bank notes and cheques should do as well as any other!

To give to a Scotsman a bank note redeemable in the "Silver Bank of Hades" was perhaps an invitation or an encouragement for him to go far; to present such a note at a local bank would perhaps impute an "agency" with the devil, which the Associated Banks would surely resist; to give it to the tax gatherer might be treated as another form of impolite greeting, and therefore he would retain it in his collection, for at least it would be comforting to know that in an emergency he could count on 50$!

Numismatists were indebted to Mr. Vivian in snatching this bank note "from the burning" and exhibiting it as an interesting sidelight on numismatic studies.

WILL SOME OF OUR FRACTIONAL CURRENCY COLLECTORS OBLIGE?

Will you kindly publish at some time convenient to yourself in your most interesting publication what you recommend as the best way of showing and also taking care of a collection of United States fractional currency?

The notes are so small that the ordinary methods of handling them are not quite the best thing in the world, so I am hoping that you in your magazine can give us some suggestions that will help us collectors in this matter.

Very truly,

EUGENE L. MADDOX.

EXHIBIT IN KANSAS CITY, MO.

The Midwest Philatelic Society staged a great show during the latter part of April in Kansas City's new Municipal Auditorium, and as in the last year's exhibition, they extended to us an invitation to participate in that event.

Members of our club contributed generously for a fine display of gold and silver coins rarely seen together at any one time. Frank C. Ross furnished his complete set of Trade dollars, displayed in a special walnut frame. Joseph W. Schmandt let us use his fine, complete set of U. S. commemoratives, mounted in panels. In a large five-foot case, Mr. Schmandt placed on exhibition a large number of gold coins, including a perfect Stella and St. Gaudens $20 gold pieces, and a complete set of Vatican coins which he acquired in Rome on his recent trip. Mr. Paris displayed an interesting group of foreign copper coins. M. H. Morgenroth furnished a large number of U. S. and foreign gold coins, including the 100-kroner gold coin commemorating the coronation of Franz Joseph, finished in proof around the edges and with a beautiful dull gold finish of the center parts. Charles Stump supplied the center group of about fifty fine dollar-size coins from all parts of the world. The most outstanding contributions were made by Sidney S. Walker, vice-president of the Mercantile-Home Bank of Kansas City, rare fractional currency bills, all uncirculated and mounted in a frame with a highly decorative design. Mr. Walker also honored our club by letting us display a frame with old Japanese gold and silver, all of which gave rise to much discussion, debate and speculation, as some of the collectors valued the case from $1,750 to $7,500. There is no doubt that the old Japanese gold and silver specimens were the most admired attraction on the floor.

CENTRAL NEW YORK NUMISMATIC MEETING.

Plans are being laid for a meeting of all collectors in Central New York and vicinity to be held some time in October, probably on the week-end of the 10th, at Rochester, N. Y.

Arrangements are in the hands of Joseph B. Harzinski, president of the Rochester club, and Charles W. Foster, secretary of that organization and secretary pro tem, of the Central New York Numismatic Association.

There will be an exhibit and an auction as well as other interesting numismatic entertainment. Final details will be announced later.

All collectors are invited to attend this meeting.

Editorial Comment—Numismatic News

FOR A "CONSTITUTION HALF DOLLAR."

I enclose herewith a copy of a bill which I prepared and had introduced in Congress by Hon. Marcellus H. Evans, of New York. It is Bill No. H. R. 12443, entitled a "Bill to authorize the coinage of 50-cent silver pieces in commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States."

The text of the bill will disclose its contents, and I wish that you would publish it in the earliest possible issue of The Numismatist; and I would ask your co-operation in all ways possible to secure favorable action on the bill. (The bill is printed elsewhere in this issue.—Editor.)

I am sending copies of the same to T. James Clark, the President of the A. N. A.

It is my opinion that there is no greater anniversary to justify a special coinage than the coming 150th anniversary of the Constitution, which will be an event that is unquestionably nationwide, and the enactment of this bill certainly will tend to bring the matter of the Constitution to the minds of all citizens and people of the country. By an unlimited coinage of a "Constitution Half Dollar" it will be brought into vast circulation. By the suspension of the issue of the regular half dollars it will be more noticeable, and by having the anniversary date of the coin itself, the memory of September 17, 1787, will become everlasting.

The Wisconsin Half Dollar

The bill authorizing the Wisconsin commemorative half dollar was signed by President Roosevelt early in May. In anticipation of favorable action by Congress and the President, designs had been prepared, and the illustrations here are from the sculptor's models. The obverse shows a badger and the inscription "Wisconsin Territorial Centennial," in addition to the inscriptions required by law for United States coins. The reverse has the Great Seal of Wisconsin. This will be the first commemorative coin issued since the Providence (R. I.) half dollar.

The commission expects to have the coins ready to make the first distribution on June 15. There is a possibility they may be delayed slightly. The issue is for 25,000, and all will be from the Philadelphia mint. There will be only one date and type. It is said that more than one-half of the issue was sold before the bill was passed by Congress.

COMMEMORAMANIA.

And still the battle rages, criticisms from the collectors, alibis from the distributors and dealers, headaches for all of us, but "to put it all in a couple of nut shells," as Andy would say, the suggestion of Arthur S. Butterworth, of Sarasota, hits the nail on the head, and I would respectfully commend it to our worthy committee on legislation for the commemorative half dollar.

The patriotic citizen, the numismatist or the person who only wants a pocket piece can order it in singles or triples; the dealer in the East and the dealer in the South can order by the thousands, and the speculator ad libitum, and who can complain unless it be the speculating dealer, but there still exists the Board of Trade and Wall Street.

And the commemorative is saved for the numismatist.

Commemorative Coins

The most important coinage bill introduced in Congress since those reported in our last issue was introduced in the House on April 23. This provides that the coinage of the usual or regular half dollar shall be suspended during 1937 and that in its stead there shall be coined a half dollar commemorating the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the United States Constitution. The coin would be of appropriate design, to be fixed by the Director of the Mint with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and would be coined in unlimited quantity and placed in circulation. The coinage would be for the year 1937 only. The bill is as follows:

A BILL

To authorize the coinage of 50-cent silver pieces in commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to indicate and demonstrate the interest and loyalty of the Government of the United States to the Constitution of the United States, to establish and foster a timely campaign of education and veneration of the same, and to provide the people of the United States with an appropriate commemorative of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of their Constitution, there shall be coined by the Director of the Mint during the calendar year 1937 a special coinage of 50-cent silver pieces of standard size, weight, and fineness, but of a special appropriate design to be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Such special design shall relate to the Constitution or its adoption and shall include thereon, in addition to all other matters now required by law, the date of September 17, 1787.

Sec. 2. The expense of making the necessary dies and all other necessary expenses in preparation for this coinage shall be paid by the United States.

Sec. 3. As a further means of accomplishing the purposes of this Act, the Director of the Mint shall suspend and cease the coinage of the usual or regular 50-cent silver pieces during the calendar year 1937; but nothing herein contained shall prevent or suspend the coinage of any special coinage authorized by law.

Sec. 4. The 50-cent silver pieces authorized by this Act shall be legal tender in any payment to the amount of their face value, and may be coined in an unlimited number during the year 1937 only, in the discretion of the Director of the Mint.

Sec. 5. All laws now in force relating to the subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same; regulating and guarding the process of coinage; providing for the purchase of material, and for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of the coins; for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting; for the security of the coin, or for any other purposes, whether said laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, and unless otherwise provided in this Act, apply to the coinage herein directed.

Other bills recently introduced are as follows:

A BILL

To authorize the coinage of 50-cent pieces in commemoration of the completion of the bridges in the San Francisco Bay area.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in commemoration of the completion of the bridges in the San Francisco Bay area there may be coined at the mints of the United States two hundred and fifty thousand silver 50-cent pieces of such design as the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may select; but the United States shall not be subject to the expense of making the models or master dies or other preparations for this coinage. Not less than twenty-five thousand silver 50-cent pieces shall be coined at one time.

Sec. 2. All laws now in force relating to the subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same, regulating and guarding the process of coinage, providing for the purchase of material, for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of the coins, for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting, for security of the coin, or for any other purposes, whether said laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the coinage authorized by this Act.

Sec. 3. The coins authorized by this Act shall be issued only to the San Francisco Bay Exposition, Incorporated, or its duly authorized agent, and upon payment to the United States of the face value of such coins.

A BILL

To authorize the coinage of 50-cent pieces in commemoration of the three-hundredth anniversary of the founding of York County, Maine.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in commemoration of the three-hundredth anniversary of the founding of York County, Maine, there shall be coined at a mint of the United States to be designated by the Director of the Mint not to exceed thirty thousand silver 50-cent pieces of standard size, weight, and composition and of special appropriate single design to be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but the United States shall not be subject to the expense of making the necessary dies and other preparations for this coinage.

Sec. 2. The coins herein authorized shall bear the date 1936, irrespective of the year in which they are minted or issued, shall be legal tender in any payment to the amount of their face value, and shall be issued only upon the request of the Committee for the Commemoration of the Founding of York County upon payment by it of the par value of such coins, but not less than five thousand such coins shall be issued to it at any one time and no such coins shall be issued after the expiration of one year after the date of enactment of this Act. Such coins may be disposed of at par or at a premium by such committee, and the net proceeds shall be used by it in defraying the expenses incidental and appropriate to the commemoration of such event.

Sec. 3. All laws now in force relating to the subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same, regulating and guarding the process of coinage, providing for the purchase of material, and for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of coins, for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting, for the security of the coins, or for any other purposes, whether such laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the coinage herein authorized.

A BILL

To authorize the coinage of 50-cent pieces in commemoration of the four-hundredth anniversary of the journey and explorations of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado.

Whereas the year 1940 marks the four-hundredth anniversary of the journey and explorations of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado, the Spanish explorer, whose discoveries in the years 1540, 1541, and 1542 gave to the world the first comprehensive knowledge of that part of Western America now included within the United States of America, and including the States of Arizona, California, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas; and

Whereas the State of New Mexico, by Legislative Act, has created a corporation known as the Coronado Cuarto Centennial Corporation for the purpose of properly commemorating and observing, during the year 1940, the phenomenal accomplishments of its first explorer: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in commemoration of the four-hundredth anniversary of the journey and explorations of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado there shall be coined at a mint of the United States to be designated by the Director of the Mint not to exceed one hundred thousand silver 50-cent pieces of standard size, weight, and composition, and of a special appropriate single design to be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but the United States shall not be subject to the expense of making the necessary dies and other preparations for this coinage.

Sec. 2. The coins herein authorized shall bear the date 1940, irrespective of the year in which they are minted or issued, shall be legal tender in any payment to the amount of their face value, and shall be issued only upon the request of the chairman or secretary of the Coronado Cuarto Centennial Corporation upon payment by him of the par value of such coins, but not less than five thousand such coins shall be issued to him at any one time and no such coins shall be issued after the expiration of one year after the date of enactment of this Act. Such coins may be disposed of at par value or at a premium by such committee and the net proceeds shall be used by it in defraying the expenses incidental and appropriate to the commemoration of such event.

Sec. 3. All laws now in force relating to the subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same, regulating and guarding the process of coinage, providing for the purchase of material, and for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of coins, for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting, for the security of the coins, or for any other purposes, whether such laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the coinage herein authorized.

Sculptor Selected for Columbia (S. C.) Half Dollar.

A. Wolfe Davidson, 32-year-old Clemson College student sculptor, has been designated to design the 50-cent piece to be coined commemorating Columbia's sesquicentennial, it was announced in Columbia by James H. Hammond, chairman of the coin committee. Mr. Davidson's instructions from the United States Mint Bureau at Washington call for a plaster cast design eight inches in diameter, to be submitted to the Philadelphia Mint. Mr. Davidson's most recent work is a life-sized statue of Thomas Green Clemson, founder of Clemson College, to be cast in bronze and placed on the Clemson campus.

The Great Lakes Exposition Coin.

The writer will be the distributor of the Cleveland Centennial Commemorative Half Dollars (Great Lakes Exposition), if and when issued. There will be only one design, and they will all be struck at one mint (probably the Philadelphia mint). There will be only one date, namely 1936.

The price will not be established until the coin bill has passed both houses (it has already passed the Senate). We are not in a position to accept any money at this time.

Status Of Bills For Commemorative Coins

As of May 15, 1936

Following is the status of the various bills for commemorative coins introduced at this session of Congress, prepared for The Numismatist by Edward L. Weikert, Jr., president of the Washington Numismatic Association.

Five bills have passed both houses of Congress and been signed by the President. They are:

H. R. 8886, Columbia, S. C.—Feb. 17, reported to House. Feb. 24, passed the House. March 3, passed the Senate. March 18, approved. Law 476.

S. 3699, Cincinnati, Ohio—Jan. 22, reported to Senate. Feb. 4, passed the Senate. March 25, passed the House. March 31, approved. Law 485.

S. 4335 and H. R. 11771, Great Lakes Exposition—March 26, reported to Senate. March 27, passed the Senate. April 16, reported to House. April 23, passed the House. Approved May 5. Law 552.

H. R. 11323, Long Island, N. Y.—Feb. 28, reported to House. March 6, passed the House. March 26, reported to Senate. March 27, passed the Senate. April 13, approved. Law 517.

H. R. 10489, New Rochelle, N. Y.—Feb. 27, reported to House. March 16, passed the House. March 26, reported to Senate. March 27, passed the Senate. May 5, approved. Law 556.

The following three bills have been passed by both houses and await approval of the President:

S. J. R. 231, Swedes of Delaware—March 26, reported to Senate. March 27, passed the Senate. April 16, reported to House. April 30, passed the House.

S. 4229, Bridgeport, Conn.—March 26, reported in Senate. March 27, passed the Senate. April 16, reported to House. April 28, passed the House.

S. 3842, Wisconsin—March 26, reported in Senate. March 27, passed the Senate. April 16, reported to House. April 28, passed the House.

The following eleven bills have either passed one house or the other or are pending or have been reported:

H. R. 8107, Tri-State (Tex. La. Ark.)—Feb. 27, reported to House. April 20, passed the House.

S. 4448, Lynchburg, Va.—April 22, reported to Senate. April 24, passed the Senate.

S. 4464 and H. R. 12397, Opening of the Golden Gate Bridge—April 23, reported to House.

H. R. 11533, Battle of Gettysburg—April 16, reported to House. May 4, passed the House.

H. R. 11688, Arkansas (change of design)—April 16, reported to House. April 30, passed the House.

H. R. 8324, Elgin, Ill.—May 7, passed the House.

H. R. 10317, Texas (change of design)—Feb. 17, reported to House. April 20, passed the House. April 17, reported to Senate.

H. R. 7690, Albany, N. Y.—Feb. 17, reported to House. March 25, passed the House.

H. R. 11371, Wilkesburg, Pa.—April 16, reported to House.

H. R. 11555, Wailatpu Mission, Walla Walla, Wash.—April 16, reported to House.

H. R. 12168, Battle of Antietam and S. 4394, Battle of Antietam—April 16, reported to House.

New bills introduced within the last few days are for half dollars for the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States; for the anniversary of the founding of York County, Maine, and the four-hundredth anniversary of the journey and explorations of Francisco Vasquez de Coronado. (The text of these bills are published elsewhere in this issue).

The status of some of the bills mentioned may change by the time this issue of the magazine reaches its readers.

IN DEFENSE OF MR. DUNN.

It seems to me that some of our fellow-members are unfair to C. Frank Dunn, distributor of the "Daniel Boones." I possess the entire set of "Daniel Boones" and credit the fact to a constant search of newspapers for news of bills being presented in Congress.

Although I had been on Mr. Dunn's mailing list from the sale of the initial Daniel Boones, I only obtained one pair of them. For your information, I act as purchasing agent for a small group of friends (working in the same concern), and bought all of their coins of the previous issues to the "rare" pair. I hold no brief for Mr. Dunn, but I feel that some collectors are unjustly irate when, if they but look back, they will see that they lost out due to procrastination.

A more flagrant instance of selling out to dealers is that of the Providence half dollar. I had my order, including my friends, placed with the commission on August 2, 1935, and March 31, 1936, the commission informed me that they could supply only one set.

A dealer claims orders of 11,500. Well, I don't believe that they ever had that many customers. But no one yelled "pirate" or "suckers" about the distributor.

Let us be fair and tolerant, and when a man claims he distributed as equably as possible (and it is proven by the fact that no coin broker has any to offer, believe him, unless it has been proven otherwise).

DISCUSSES SOME OF THE COMMEMORATIVE DESIGNS.

Just a little more than a year ago I took considerable pride in my collection of commemorative half bucks. Each coin carried an interest that created in me a renaissance in both history and geography. True, the Oregon Indian tribe was becoming a war party, but by showing the reverse of some it didn't hurt the appearance of the collection, as it was such an artistically designed coin. Now when I look at my assortment I realize that I am a real numismatic nut. Who but a bug would try to obtain an assortment of ten of that long nose on the Boone issue? I'm glad that I have only eight of them (can you tell me where I can pick up those other two, within reason?), and I'm glad that Daniel never looked like that sculpted mug.

Then those seven Texas items. It's not a very proud eagle that is trying to hide that star, but it revives your geographic knowledge that Texas is our largest State when you see them trying to show everything in that State on one side of a coin.

And the Arkansas (how these eagles have lost their beauty since the Alabama and Illinois issues)! The carpenter that designed it should have omitted his square or shown his union card. And the decapitated redskin and his equally bodyless companion are all wrong. When did an Indian ever get that close to liberty?

I'm thankful that there's only three of those Rhode Island notary public seals, and triply glad for only one of Mr. Hoffer's map and steer head. I've seen those steer heads in Mexican market restaurants. You could buy a slice of cheek or an eyeball for lunch, if so disposed.

In spite of my knocks, I still like the darned monstrosities, but I hope the coin company will lay off the Oregon. Old Daniel was a simple old guy, and I'm sure he's embarrassed with the present number of shrines, and I do hope those Arkansas and Texas centennials will not carry over into 1937. They might forget to stop.

I like to inflict my collection on visiting friends, and I'm tired explaining why I have so many of these items.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE NEW ROCHELLE COIN.

There has been much comment and rumors regarding the New Rochelle half dollar. Being particularly interested in this coin as the original sponsor, and as there has been a great deal of criticism and a great many stories which are not true, I want to make it distinctly understood that this half dollar will be distributed by a committee appointed by the Mayor. The distributors of this coin will be the First National Bank of New Rochelle, New Rochelle, N. Y.

As far as I am concerned, I will do everything in my power to see that each and every collector will receive one or two of these pieces. The price has been set at $2, plus postage, and there are 25,000 coins to be issued. I believe this will be ample for all collectors and dealers.

I trust that all collectors who are interested in commemorative half dollars will be satisfied with the way the New Rochelle half dollar will be distributed.

THE PROVIDENCE HALF DOLLAR.

As I ease this sheet into the portable I note that it is April 9th, 1936—just four months since the date of a receipt for $10.25 signed by the committee at Providence, R. I., supposed to distribute some commemorative half dollars. Up to this writing I have received no coins; but yesterday I read in The Numismatist a statement from a local Providence daily that sounds to me much like a mosquito bar—very long, very smooth, but deucedly thin. In effect, the story implies that the community has gone numismatic in a big way. I wonder if Secretary Harry Wilson got busy at once, grabbed a phone directory and mailed membership application blanks to sundry Providence people, who have no doubt imbibed the idea that a New Deal Congress gazed at the clause in the forgotten Constitution that says "Congress shall have power to coin money and regulate the value thereof" for all the people—even gullible California collectors. The very thrifty of the near neighbors of the wooden nutmeg State no doubt believe that they can partake of their Jubilee cake, and then multiply many times their money on its cost also by resales of the coins. Possibly the occasion was represented to the thrifty burgers by the Jubilee committee that here was an opportunity to make collectors of the nation come across in a way that would make the Irish Sweepstakes look like a fish pond at a church social. Gather not from the above that I appear to be sore over the matter, because haven't I also been given the run-around by the original experts at Hudson, N. Y.? They, unfortunately, had no facile local historian equal to the Providence daily; there was only the deafening silence which, too, resulted from a judicious boycott of the mails for ordinary business correspondence. Moreover, hasn't the incident revealed to me that among the 45,000 new amateur numismatists so created possibly a few may be interested in bidding on a fair to middling commemorative set that I am busting up.

The unique reasoning of the committee carried to its logical conclusion would indicate that the participation of the public at large is not desired, and gullible coin collectors who might find themselves in the city limits during the celebration would do well to scan the change they get at the local hot-dog stands.

CALIFORNIA COLLECTOR.

THINKS MR. DUNN HAS BEEN VERY FAIR.

I have read so many criticisms and condemnations regarding C. Frank Dunn, distributor of the Boone commemorative coins, that I wish to tell you that I am one collector who has had no trouble at all in getting a single copy of every Boone coin ever issued.

I have never sent in an order for a coin before it has been advertised in The Numismatist, and have then only ordered a single specimen of each one, and my orders have always been promptly and courteously filled. I think a lot of kicks and criticisms have been coming from people who have ordered several copies of the rare issues, or who have ordered the rare issues but did not order any of the 1934 and early 1935 issues. I believe Mr. Dunn has tried to be very fair about distributing these coins, and evidently has attempted to mail specimens of the limited issues to those who ordered the early issues from him.

I do not know Mr. Dunn personally, and have never had the pleasure of meeting him, so there would be no possible chance of his showing me any favor in sending me specimens of these coins, and in conclusion I wish to state that I do not think that he has meant to be unfair in any way.

Says Commemoratives Are A Boon To Collecting.

After careful consideration and analysis of the commemorative coin situation it is my honest opinion that what has transpired promises to be a boon to coin collecting. Allowing that perhaps there has been some fault to find in the methods of distribution, we have all been more than compensated by the keen interest these numerous issues have aroused. We are aware of the tremendous interest developed in stamp collecting, due to frequent and attractive new issues, and the same situation is being built up in the commemorative series if we will permit it and cease being short-sighted.

We should all be enthusiastic and welcome these favorable developments, which are the means of attracting live, red-blooded collectors to our hobby instead of wailing and protesting because we may have missed out on some issue. I believe that the active, wide-awake collector who has not procrastinated has been accorded fair and decent treatment, with the possible exception of the Hudson issue. When the new collector has completed this interesting series, interest could and probably will spread to other sets, most likely the cents.

Surely no one wishes to slumber and never see an increase in the value of his collection. Can you conceive the real possibilities if our present membership was doubled? As J. C. Marsh stated in his letter published in the May issue of The Numismatist, "Don't kill the goose that is laying the golden eggs," and I shall add, "especially on his first appearance to our circle in many years." The opportunity exists to expand and popularize our hobby to the extent it deserves. Let's not miss it. I say the more commemoratives the better.

GEORGE T. HANSON.

Sees No Favoritism In Distribution.

It seems that every month some other collector that was unfortunate in not obtaining the so-called "Frankenstein Boone" of 1935 voices his opinion of the distributor.

In reply to Dr. W. I. Mitchell, I have always sent my check to C. Frank Dunn for the various issues of the Boones as soon as The Numismatist was handed to me by my postman. Never have any of them come back marked "sold out." Of course, I only order two sets, and on one occasion my check was returned for one set of the 1935 D and S mint. Dr. Mitchell thinks it "utterly incomprehensible" how any issue of only five thousand can be legitimately "sold out" in a few days. How about the Hudson, Doctor? An issue of ten thousand was received by the committee on June 28th, and on July 2nd the entire supply was depleted. My check was returned and I had to purchase them elsewhere.

Dr. Mitchell knows of several collectors that are in favor of boycotting such issues. Did Dr. Mitchell read an interesting paper by Mr. J. Cramer Marsh, who says: "I would hate to offer a rare set of the Boones for $5 to collectors who have agreed not to collect these issues"? Dr. Mitchell would like very much to know the favored subscribers. I have a complete set of the commemorative series and feel as though I have never been favored by any distributor.

Howard Marx also thinks "the big fish got all the 1936 Boones." I know of several small fry that got theirs without any influence, and they are not members of the A. N. A.

It all sums up to, What are you and I going to do about it?

Here is to the grand time ahead of keeping up with the issuance of the forthcoming new batch of commemorative issues.

Fraternally Yours,
BARNETT CHAIKEN.

WE WANT PROOF SILVER DOLLARS.

The Government of the United States has just announced the resumption of coining proofs. It further states that there will be no silver dollar proofs unless a substantial demand necessitates coining them. All the loyal numismatists are up in arms over this statement. We want complete sets of proofs, and we can get them by creating the necessary demand. If every person reading this article would write a postcard to the Superintendent of the Mint, Philadelphia, Pa. asking the price of a PROOF SILVER DOLLAR we could soon create that "DEMAND" the Government is harping about. Well, boys how about it? Will you do it? Thanks a lot.

THE N. Y. N. C. ON THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

Members of The New York Numismatic Club have read with interest the proposed amendment to the A. N. A. Constitution, as published on page 371 of the May issue, which has for its purpose to consolidate the offices of President and Chairman of the Board, and to place the First Vice-President on the Board of Governors.

This amendment was discussed at length at the meeting of our club held on May 8th, and such old-time members and ex-officers of the A. N. A. as Messrs. Farran Zerbe, Howland Wood, E. T. Newell, F. C. C. Boyd, Joseph Barnet, John Zug and Moritz Wormser participated in the discussion—all of them men who have always taken a loyal and faithful interest in the development of the Association, and some of whom have been especially instrumental in building it up.

It was the unanimous conclusion that this proposed amendment should be withdrawn; that by all means the offices of President and Chairman of the Board should be continued separately, and that the functions of the offices of President and Board of Governors should be continued along the same lines as contained in the present Constitution, and as established by tradition and practice all these many years, during which the A. N. A. has grown and prospered; also that the offices of First and Second Vice-President should be continued as heretofore, without active authority in the management of A. N. A. affairs, except in cases of emergency.

The members of the club believe that there is no fundamental conflict between these offices, and, granted that the right set of men are elected to these offices, there should be no difficulty for them to work with mutual understanding, in close co-operation and with perfect harmony; and that, on the other hand, in the case of dissension, it is most desirable that there should be a check upon each other on the part of the two leading offices.

We trust that the conclusion reached by The New York Numismatic Club and its members will be convincing and of influence upon the officers and the general body of the A. N. A. membership.

Of course it is to be understood that the opinion expressed by the New York Numismatic Club is merely a statement of principle and no reflection on the present officers of the Association, for whom the club has the highest regard, and whose work and enthusiastic efforts for the furtherance of numismatics the club greatly admires, and is at all times willing and anxious to support.

We hope that you will find space to publish this communication in the June number.

Respectfully submitted,
THE NEW YORK NUMISMATIC CLUB,
F. C. C. BOYD, Secretary.

May 13, 1936.

THE PROPOSED CHANGE IN A. N. A. CONSTITUTION.

I am unqualifiedly opposed to the amendment change in the A. N. A. Constitution suggested by the Chairman of the Board of Governors in the April issue of The Numismatist. The President is our presiding officer. The Chairman is our executive officer. The membership demands the right to elect the President and Chairman of the Board of Governors, both offices to be kept distinct and separate. Proxy Fraters, guard your Constitution. Vote "No" on the question.

W. F. DUNHAM,
Chicago, Ill., April 22, 1936. A. N. A. 361.

RECENT ADDITIONS TO THE A. N. A. LIBRARY.

During the past month several new items have been added to the library. They are as follows:

Wm. F. Dunham has presented the library with a copy of his publication "Easy Finding List," Canadian and United States, Colonial and Territorial Coins, Hard Times tokens and Encased U. S. Postage Stamps.

"Numismatic Mythology," by Jean B. Cammann, 1936, has been presented with the compliments of Wayne Raymond.

"The Coinage of the Second Saffrid Dynasty in Sistan," by John Walker, 1936, has been presented with the compliments of F. D. Langenheim.

William H. Cornish, of Buffalo, has generously donated the library with copies of The Numismaticist complete from January, 1931, to March, 1934. Extra copies of this magazine are always valuable to the library as frequently it would save postage on a whole volume when only one number is desired. We would be pleased to have some of the earlier issues if anyone cares to offer them to us.

Value of the A. N. A. Library.

Seldom does the Librarian use the testimonial idea to advertise the Library, though he does receive many comments and compliments on this service. However, here are two from new members of the organization that he could not resist using.

The first one says: "I might say that as an isolated collector I am indeed happy to have found such an Association. I know that my membership in it cannot prove to be anything but helpful and profitable." N. B. M.

The second says: "Under separate cover I am returning the books recently borrowed and which I have enjoyed very much. This is a wonderful service, and is alone worth the cost of the yearly dues." T. R.

If you have not yet used your privilege of borrowing books from the library, better think it over. For if you are serious about becoming a numismaticist you are missing a wonderful opportunity.

May 13th, 1936.

CHARLES W. FOSTER, Librarian.

A. N. A. CONVENTION BADGES WANTED.

To complete the Association's collection, which will be first displayed at the Minneapolis Convention, the following convention badges are desired: Springfield, 1914; San Francisco, 1915; Rochester, 1917; Chicago, 1920; Boston, 1921; and New York, 1922.

In reference, please address L. S. Werner, Washington Bridge Station,

Box 56, New York, N. Y.

FAHRAN ZERBE,

Chairman of Committee.

Deaths

JACOB WEIGEL.

Jacob Weigel died at his home, 1461 North Fair Oaks avenue, Pasadena, Cal., on March 30, 1936. He had been a member of the A. N. A. almost since its organization and had lived in Pasadena for 34 years. He was a prominent member of the Pilgrim Congregational Church. He is survived by his widow, three daughters and two sons.

ELLIS LEHEW MACCARTNEY.

It is a sad message to report that Ellis MacCartney, of Pittsfield, Mass., who recently joined the A. N. A., was drowned in the Hudson river while on a canoeing trip. At the time this is written his body has not been recovered. Mr. MacCartney was 31 years old, a skilled engineer with the General Electric Company, a most lovable young man and an ardent collector of Colonials, cents and commemoratives.

A. N. A. Convention Minneapolis, Minn. August 22 to 27

Historical Review of Minneapolis—
City of Lakes

THE INVITATION.

May I, as president of the Northwest Coin Club, extend through the pages of The Numismatist a very cordial invitation to all members of the American Numismatic Association and their friends to attend the convention to be held in Minneapolis, August 22-27, inclusive?

The Northwest Coin Club appreciates the honor paid us in selecting us to serve as your hosts for the 1936 meeting. We are young in years, but we have laid the foundation of an organization that will endeavor to uphold a high standard of ethics.

The Twin Cities (Minneapolis and St. Paul) have entertained many large, distinguished and important conventions, but this is the first opportunity we have had to be hosts to the coin collectors and dealers of the United States and Canada. We hope that every A. N. A. club will send large delegations, and we pledge you our best efforts to do everything within our power to make your stay a pleasant and happy one.

Minneapolis, the metropolis, and St. Paul, the capital of Minnesota, situated in the center of the Land of Ten Thousand Lakes, offers you unexcelled advantages for recreation. Bring your family with you and plan to make this your vacation time as well as convention time.

Cordially yours,

OCE CURTIS, President.

1335 LaSalle Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., May 7, 1936.

As a fitting background we present this month a historical review of the city in which the A. N. A. will hold its 1936 convention. Next month and in August we will give more intimate details of the convention.

The following letter is self-explanatory:

Mr. T. James Clarke, President,
American Numismatic Association,
Jamestown, N. Y.

May 6, 1936.

Dear Mr. Clarke: The Minneapolis Civic and Commerce Association, as the representative of the business interests of Minneapolis, wishes to extend a cordial invitation to the members of the American Numismatic Association to attend the convention of your Association in this city on August 22 to 27, 1936.

We know that you will enjoy Minneapolis. Here are just a few reasons why:

Minneapolis, a city of lakes and parks, with six large lakes within its boundaries, offers you a vacation in itself. Your meeting comes during the most delightful part of our summer season.

Your personal comfort is amply provided for by an abundance of first-class hotels, all of which are centrally located.

Your convention sessions can be held in comfort and quiet in commodious hotel meeting rooms.

Minneapolis is centrally located. It is easily reached by railroad, bus lines, automobiles or airplanes. This fact has an important bearing on convention attendance.

The press of this city always cooperates in spreading the news of a convention.

Minneapolis is a metropolitan city, with all desirable attractions, such as first-class theatres, cafes and places of amusement.

Minneapolis invites you to Minnesota for your convention and for a restful vacation in "The Land of Ten Thousand Lakes."

Sincerely yours,

H. J. MILLER,
President.

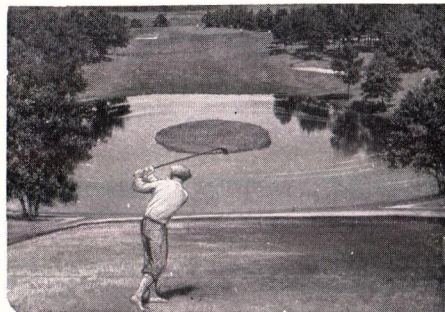

The historical significance of the city of Minneapolis starts with the discovery of St. Anthony Falls by Father Louis Hennepin in 1680. In the centuries which followed, the falls were viewed by many explorers. It was the natural thing to do to establish the beginnings of a city on the site of the falls. Those early days meant fur-trading in the Northwest, and they meant lumber. The falls were ideal for the development of power for the sawmills. Later as the great grain States of the Middle West and Northwest became world producers, the same falls were utilized to provide power for milling of grain.

Census experts at Washington, D. C., estimated the July 1, 1932, population of the city as 481,700. The city has won world renown as a beautiful municipality from its location along the deep gorge of the Mississippi River and the eleven lakes inside the city limits. A far-seeing park development, based on the lakes and the natural highways joining them, has given the city one of the finest park and boulevard systems in the country. The natural setting amid many lakes gave the city its name. It was suggested by Charles Hoag, a pioneer business man and former school teacher. The word is a compound from the Sioux and Greek tongues, "minne" being the Sioux name for water and "polis" the Greek word for city.

It is difficult for the visitors who come each year by thousands to realize as they motor down the broad business streets, with towering skylines, and along the magnificent boulevards that only eighty years ago less than a dozen shacks were clustered near the Falls of St. Anthony on the western bank of the Mississippi River where now stands the business "loop." Yet, it was not until August 26, 1852, that President Millard Fillmore approved the act of Congress reducing the size of the Fort Snelling military reservation, which up to that time included the land west of the falls. This threw the greater part of Minneapolis open to settlers.

In the early days the whole Northwest was the center for a thriving fur business. As in ancient times all roads led to Rome, so by the middle of the nineteenth century, all roads in the present State of Minnesota and much of western Wisconsin led to St. Anthony Falls and nearby trading posts. From the south came the Dubuque Trail and the Spirit Lake Trail. One of the longest and most important of the trails was the Pembina or the Red River Trail from the Northwest. Today Minneapolis is the center of the State's great system of trunk highways which lead from the southern and eastern borders into the Land of Ten Thousand Lakes.

On June 22, 1862, the first train rolled into St. Anthony. It connected St. Anthony with St. Paul and ran over the first railroad line built in Minnesota. Today Minneapolis is the railroad center for the Northwest, being served by ten trunk line railroads, four of which are transcontinental.

Minneapolis today has 923 manufacturers and 991 wholesalers. Scenically, Minneapolis is unique among all the cities of the world, for within its borders lie no less than eleven bodies of water, not mere mill ponds, but real lakes, each with a shore line from two to five miles long. All of these lakes, and a half dozen smaller ones, are linked together by a magnificent system of parkway boulevards whose total length is fifty-eight miles. The Minneapolis Park Board has erected upon the smooth sand beaches along the shores of the lakes fine bathing beaches for the accommodation of the crowds who swarm there during the summer months. There are 143 parks within the city limits, offering more than an acre of park land for every ninety-two residents. In one park is Minnehaha Falls "laughing and leaping into the valley." It was this colorful waterfall that inspired Longfellow to write "Hiawatha," known to every school child in the land.

General Pershing, Marshal Foch, and other celebrated generals of the World War have pronounced the sweeping Victory Memorial Drive to be the most fitting expression of reverence and respect to those who lost their lives in the service of their country during the World War, for a living tree will always keep fresh the memory of the War dead for succeeding generations.

Sailboating on Lake Calhoun.

This monumental drive is three miles long, 200 feet wide and is lined with four rows of Cathedral elms, each bearing the name of a Hennepin County soldier who lost his life in the service of his country during the World War.

Wonderful within itself, Minneapolis possesses the added attraction of being the gateway to Minnesota's Land of Ten Thousand Lakes. Within a radius of twenty-five miles from the city are more than 100 lakes. Only twelve miles away lies famed Minnetonka whose shores are lined with palatial summer homes, many of which would do credit to fashionable Newport. Through the State are thousands of bodies of water, teeming with an inexhaustible supply of game fish. The woods and prairies abound in game, including moose, deer, ducks, geese, pheasants, and grouse. Hunting, fishing, bathing, boating, canoeing, camping, and the numerous additional recreational attractions of this North Star State give Minnesota the title of the "Summer Playground of the Nation" and Minneapolis the title of "The Vacation Capital of America."

Original checks of two noted American Indians, John Two Guns White Calf, who posed for the Indian head on the present 5-cent coin, and Chief Clifton Mohawk, whose autograph forms an Indian head with feathered bonnet. Also various medals picturing Indians.

The secretary reported the death of our fellow member, Frederick E. Merritt. It was also reported that our fellow member, R. E. Chase, has been quite ill.

The Secretary reported a communication from James A. Morrison, of the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau. After considerable discussion the President appointed a committee of three to decide the question brought up by the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau. This committee consists of Howland Wood, Moritz Wormser and F. C. C. Boyd.

The Executive Committee suggested as the topic for the June meeting, "Small Size United States Cents and Flowers in Numismatics," which was adopted.

As associate member of the A. N. A., Mr. Boyd brought up the question of the proposed amendment to the A. N. A. Constitution, as published on Page 371 of the May issue of The Numismatist, which has as its purpose to consolidate the offices of President and Chairman of the Board, and to place the first Vice-President on the Board of Governors. After considerable discussion it was moved, seconded and carried that the secretary write a letter to the editor of The Numismatist, a copy of this letter to be sent to the President, Chairman of the Board and various officers and district secretaries, so that they would be thoroughly familiar with the criticism which was unanimously made by the members of our Club.

The Publication Committee reported all the current numismatic events.

The Secretary read to the Club a communication received from Frank C. Ross, of Kansas City, Mo.

The president greeted our guest, E. W. May, and Mr. May responded by informing the club of his pleasure at attending the meeting.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY COIN CLUB—April 21, 24th meeting, was the occasion for celebrating the second anniversary of the club with a very fine dinner served by the Roger Smith Hotel, White Plains, N. Y. Vice-President Dewey presided, as President Hyde was unable to attend on account of continued illness. Twenty-three members and 23 guests were present. Mr. Morris expressed the regrets of Archibald Roosevelt for not being able to attend on account of the illness of his mother.

An excerpt from the Congressional Record regarding bill for the New Rochelle Half Dollar was read.

The applications for membership of Leroy E. Cox, Dr. Harold H. Freund and J. Tyson McGill, were favorably acted upon. Regrets from Pompeo Coppini, Moritz Wormser, and Nicholas J. Laszlo, for their inability to attend were read.

The topics of the next meeting will be: Proofs of Broken Bank Notes; Uncirculated Coins; Daniel Boone Half Dollars (Mr. Tarter will speak on this topic).

Mr. Deas was called upon to act as master of ceremonies. Mr. Dewey and Mr. Guttag said a few words of greeting, and Mr. Marsden read a history of the club from the date of inception in April, 1934, to date. Messrs. Sghia, Kortjohn, Reagan, Kraus and Bullowa expressed their pleasure at being present.

Edward T. Newell, president of the American Numismatic Society and the New York Numismatic Club, reviewed the history of the A. N. S. from 1858 to recent activities. Max Johl gave a talk on the subject of changing the system of issuing commemorative coins, comparing the method with the system of distributing stamps, and showed the original drawing of the Walloon coin, used also for the commemorative stamp.

T. James Clarke, President of the American Numismatic Association closed the meeting with a brief talk on the Association's work.

Exhibits were as follows:

Mr. Gutttag: Slug issued in 1907 when currency became scarce, which slug was illustrated in The Numismatist of April, 1908, showing on the obverse, "2 ounces Baker City, Oregon"; reverse, "In Gold We Trust"; a check for $1 issued by the sergeant-at-arms, House of Representatives; an assay bar of silver, marked "Prescott, 1883."

Mr. Lighte: Glass Egyptian coin used between 800 and 1200 A. D., the glass being similar to the famous Tiffany Fravial glass; Lincoln bronze medal by H. Zearing, obverse, bust of Lincoln; reverse, "With malice toward none, with charity for all, etc."; fireman's silver medal of 1860, in proof, size of silver half dollar and similar to a commemorative coin, with milled edge.

Mrs. Dewey: Maundy coins of 1924; Panama-Pacific gold dollar of 1915; silver chukkrums of Travancore, India.

Mr. Dewey: Official Congressional Manila Bay medal; three 3½-inch Columbian medals of World's Fair of 1892 in different metals; leather scrip from Heppner, Oregon.

Mr. Fastiggi: Representative collection of fractional currency and postage currency, including several of rare perforated issue.

Mr. Kraus: Czechoslovakia coins, 1923, one and two ducats; 1929, ten ducats; 1929, one and three ducat medals, and a silver medal of 1929.

Mr. Morrison: 1795 $5 gold piece.

Mr. Kortjohn: Coin of largest denomination ever struck, namely, one million million marks; regular half dollar, as he thought very few had ever seen one of the ordinary mintage.

Mr. Deas: Comparison of coins and stamps—Connecticut, Texas and San Diego Exposition.

Mr. Morris: Specimen $1 note of the first issue of Canada, 1870 and 1878, which is the only known specimen in existence; Gobrecht $1 of 1836 presented by the Philadelphia Mint to General Jackson.

Mr. Bullowa: 1900, Brazil, 4,000 reis; 1928 Hawaiian half dollar, and 1786 Prussian thaler.

Mr. Root: Silver and bronze medals commemorating the establishment of the Commonwealth of The Philippines, November 15, 1935, designed by Crispulo Zamora, of Manila; bronze medal commemorating the 150th anniversary of the establishment of the State of New York at Kingston, and George Clinton, First Governor, in 1777.

Mr. Daus: Panama-Pacific, Illinois, Spanish Trail and a set of Oregon Trail half dollars.

Mr. Case: A series of prehistoric American specimens, showing the semi-lunar and spud types, compared with the Aztec axe money.

BRONX COIN CLUB—Thirty-second meeting, April 22, President Sghia presiding. Twenty-four members were present, all being also members of the American Numismatic Association. Our seven guests of the evening included T. James Clarke, president of the American Numismatic Association, and Messrs. Heft, Kimball, Mosher, Parker, Reagan and Schlang.

Mr. Stein read an excellent paper on "The Career and Coinage of Sextus Pompey." Mr. Arthur read a paper on the "U. S. Colonial Coins," and Mr. Bullowa on the U. S. half dollars commemorating Revolutionary events. Mr. Hentgen gave a graphic demonstration of the making of medals. Mr. van der Meer exhibited five medals struck in Holland to celebrate the freedom of the United Colonies from Great Britain and carefully described each medal, giving the meaning of the various symbols. These members were voted the thanks of the club for their efforts.

New commemorative coins already approved and those for which bills had been introduced in Congress were commented upon by Mr. Bullowa. Special comment was made on the Cincinnati, Cleveland, Oregon Trail and Long Island coins.

Mr. Mosher told of the success of past Tri-State Conventions and hoped it would be possible for several Bronx members to be present this year.

T. James Clarke, President of the American Numismatic Association, was given a special welcome to the Bronx. He told of numismatic experiences and of recent happenings in the A. N. A. The work of the commemorative coin legislative committee was explained and also the matters concerning the officers and the Board of Governors. He then gave the reasons behind the rise in advertising rates in The Numismatist.

The topics for the evening were: "The U. S. Colonial Coins," "Coins of Countries in Europe, Africa and Asia, except China, beginning with the Letter C," and "Coins and Medals pertaining to U. S. Revolutionary Events." Exhibits were as follows:

Mr. Arthur: Uncirculated Continental dollar, 1776; copies of Confederation cent of 1785 and George Clinton cent of 1787; Washington cents of 1783 and 1791, brilliant, uncirculated; Fugio cent, 1787; Massachusetts cent and half cent of 1787; Connecticut cent, 1787; Immunis Columbia, 1786.

Mr. Barnett: Complete set of sixteen different 1907 gold pieces, consisting of seven double eagles, five eagles, two half eagles and two quarter eagles; set of 1936 Texas half dollars; half sovereign of Charles IV of 1834.

Mr. Blake: Set of South African Republic silver and gold; Buffalo nickel of 1935 struck in copper.

Mr. Bullowa: Two medals of Czechoslovakia, 929-1929; ten kronen of Czechoslovakia for Masaryk, dated 1928; Czechoslovakia medal, 1918-1928.

Mr. Carpenter: Fugio cent with obverse struck on reverse, reverse design struck later; Wyon proof crown of Great Britain of 1839.

Mr. Clark: 48 coins of Cape of Good Hope, Cambodia, Catalonia, Celebes, Ceylon, Cochinchina, Comorro Island, Corsica, Crete, Cyprus and Czechoslovakia.

Mr. Deas: Three commemorative half dollars with corresponding stamps; twelve Connecticut centennial medals; set of Providence half dollars.

Mr. Engel: Sesquicentennial, Lexington-Concord and Bennington half dollars; Centennial and Lafayette dollars.

Mr. Fibish: 1927 quarter eagle, uncirculated.

Mr. Hentgen: Medals of the committee of selection of the Seal of the U. S.; medals of the Great Seal of the United States.

Mr. Kennedy: Twenty-two Colonial coins.

Mr. Stein: Coins of Sextus Pompey.

Mr. van der Meer: Five Dutch-American medals of the Revolution.

Mr. Werner: Fifteen types of Ptolemy tetradrachms; Aspendus stater; Velia, stater; Judaea, First Revolt, shekel of year 3, Simon Maccabaeus; tetradrachm of Athens, all coins in very fine condition.

Mr. Wolff: Complete set of notes of General Gordon used to pay the defenders of Khartoum.

The topics for the May meeting will be selected by the board of governors and will be announced later.

(Dr. Morton S. Hahn resigned as treasurer of the Bronx Coin Club, February 27.)

ROCHESTER NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION—April 21, President Harzinski in the chair. Eleven members were present.

A communication was read from Miss MacFarlane, secretary of the Museum's Hobby Council, announcing the coming hobby show at the Rochester Exposition in September, and also asking for a representative to attend a meeting on April 28th for the purpose of planning the exhibition. Mr. Harzinski, a member of the Hobby Council, planned to represent us at this meeting.

A letter from Henry Hunt, chairman of the Board of Governors of the American Numismatic Association, regarding proposed changes in Article 3, Section 2, of that organization's constitution, was read and ordered filed.

A letter was read from Robert H. Lloyd regarding New York State transportation tokens, tickets, etc. This was turned over to one of the members interested in these items.

Plans for the Central New York numismatic meeting were discussed and a tentative date for the meeting was set, October 10 being the date.

After considerable discussion for and against the R. N. A.'s participation in the 1936 Hobby Show, the meeting was turned over to F. E. Peake, who acted efficiently as auctioneer and disposed of a number of nice things at bargain prices.

Following the auction coffee and doughnuts were served.

ROCHESTER NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION—May 5th, 553rd meeting, President Harzinski presiding. Eighteen members were present.

A communication from L. L. Clough, of Slingerlands, N. Y., was read. Mr. Clough asked for a copy of our by-laws and constitution to aid the collectors near Albany in forming a club.

President Harzinski gave a report on the recent meeting of the Museum Hobby Council, and after some discussion the R. N. A. decided to enter an exhibit at the Hobby Show, which will be held in conjunction with the Rochester Exposition early in September.

Charles W. Foster was appointed chairman of the committee to arrange and install this exhibit. Mr. Foster appointed Messrs. Harzinski, Powers, Donley, Thomson and Blum to serve on the committee.

Some little time was devoted to questions and answers, during which many interesting points were brought out. One of the new questions upon which we sought enlightenment was: What is a sand blast proof? How were they made?

Mr. Harzinski displayed an excellent coin cabinet which he had made to house his commemorative collection. The cabinet was very small, just large enough to contain this collection, with a little space for possible additions. The principal feature of its smallness being the ease with which it may be transported for exhibiting purposes.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—April 7, President Marlier in the chair. Eleven members and one guest were present.

The secretary read a letter from Henry Hunt regarding the membership of the President of the A. N. A. on the Board of Governors. The matter was discussed but no action was deemed necessary at this time.

Several members reported that they had learned upon good authority that progress is under way toward curbing the present unsatisfactory methods of distributing commemorative coins.

The application for membership of W. W. Reynolds, 1211 Shady Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., was read.

Exhibits for the evening were:

Mr. Scaife: 1787 Fugio cent, about uncirculated; U. S. A. Bar cent; 1681 St. Patrick's farthing; 1778-1779 Rhode Island ship token; 1791 Washington cent, large eagle, very fine; sterling silver bar of the San Francisco mint, 999.75 fine, weight 5.10 ounces.

Mr. Locker: 24 foreign coins, dollar to quarter size.

Mr. Hall: 4 bronze and 2 silver historical medals.

Mr. Gies: 50c. fractional currency, red back, Spinner's signature only; 1877 small proof set; 1795 cent; 1835 cent; Louisiana gold dollar, 1903.

Mr. Gaede: Various silver and bronze medals of the United States.

Mr. Coatsworth: Boone half dollars, complete.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—May 5, President Marlier in the chair. Thirteen members and one guest were present.

It is with much pleasure that we announce that Henry Hunt attended the meeting. He is well on the road to recovery from the serious illness. The society welcomed his return, both as individual members and as a body.

The secretary read a letter from Mr. Hunt regarding an amendment to the A. N. A. constitution to elect the President and Vice-President to the Board of Governors, with the power to vote. Mr. Hunt then spoke in support of the plan as outlined in the letter.

The application of W. W. Reynolds was read and he was duly elected to membership.

The application of H. G. Mockett, 7109 Michigan Ave., Swissvale, Pa., was read and awaits the action of the society.

Refreshments were then served and a sociable hour was enjoyed by all.

Exhibits for the evening:

Mr. Piper: 12 half-dollar-size bronze medals of Connecticut Tercentenary.

Mr. Hall: Four bronze Lindbergh medals.

Mr. Scaife: 1855 pattern cent, A-W. 201 (copper); 1868 pattern cent, nickel; U. S. A. Distinguished Service medal; French military medals; Silver Jubilee medal of King George and Queen Mary.

Mr. Manning: 1793 cent, G. 11-J, very fine; 1795 cent, D. 66, uncirculated.

Mr. Locker: 27 foreign silver coins from dollar to dime size.

Mr. Gies: Seven pieces of fractional currency; 2 varieties of 1797 cent; 2 varieties of 1837 cent; Lafayette dollar.

BUFFALO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION—207th meeting, April 27, called to order by President Stoaks, with fourteen members and six visitors present. Henry Hunt's letter regarding certain changes in the A. N. A. Constitution was received and referred to the executive committee for recommendations.

Mr. Stoaks appointed Mr. Taylor, Mr. Walker and Mr. Lloyd to act as a committee in charge to fill the cases at the Buffalo Museum of Sciences which have been reserved for the Club's use.

A fine auction followed with an abundance of material.

Exhibits were as follows:

Mr. Taylor: $2½ gold 1802, fine. Set of 1936 Texas commemorative half dollars, P, D, S mints, Unc.

Mr. Hopkins: A fine display of United States commemorative half dollars, lacking three pieces to make a complete collection to date, all Unc.

Mr. Lloyd: Extremely fine crown, George III, 1819, and shilling, Anne, 1709.

BUFFALO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION—May 11. The meeting was called to order by President Stoaks, with twelve members and two visitors present.

An invitation was received from the Rochester Numismatic Association for the Central New York meeting to be held on or about October 10th.

Mr. Clarke, president of the A. N. A., gave a talk on coins in Buffalo, May 15th. He amplified his remarks with a fine display. Mr. Myers extended an invitation to all members who desired to come. The meeting was held at the Highland Lodge, of which Mr. Myers is a member.

A motion was carried that the secretary write the Director of the Mint requesting the issuance of proof silver dollars. If other clubs will follow suit we may get them.

Mr. Urban was elected to full membership.

Mr. Wolsley gave an interesting lecture on "Heraldry of Coins and Its Meanings."

A short auction followed.

Mr. Cage showed uncirculated Two pence and penny cartwheel pieces of Geo. III, 1797.

DETROIT COIN CLUB—287th meeting, April 2, with Vice-President Kaller presiding. Thirty members and two visitors were present.

The application for membership of Mr. Donaldson was read and referred to the investigation committee.

A short discussion took place with reference to the "raw deal" the Rhode Island and Providence Plantations Jubilee Committee had given the Detroit Coin Club and any action to be taken was postponed until a later meeting.

Mr. Temple reported that a 1936 Oregon Trail half dollar would be out soon.

Mr. Reidenbach donated a drawing of the club's seal to the club for the purpose of having a new cut made.

Mr. Dodd turned in a report on the exhibition held along with the Michigan Stamp Club and thanked the members who helped to make same a success. He pointed out that the information desk, that we had for the first time was a success, and many people made inquiries about coins which they possessed and were given first-hand information on just what constitutes value of a coin to a collector. We have already received applications for membership which were a direct result of having this information desk at the exhibition.

Mr. Dodd reported that he had prepared an auction sale to be held after meeting adjourns and that same would be sold to the highest bidder without reserve. He also reported that if this auction was a success he would prepare more of same for the near future and invited any members who might have duplicates to dispose of to turn same over to him for this purpose.

A short discussion took place on whether or not to purchase the Rhode Island half dollars for the club's cabinet. The librarian was instructed to purchase same.

A set of 1936 Daniel Boone and a Canadian silver dollar of 1936 were turned over to the librarian for the club's cabinet. Same were also passed out to the members present having same on order.

An auction sale followed and the proceeds were turned into the club's treasury.

DETROIT COIN CLUB—288th meeting, April 16th, President Stehfest presiding. Thirty-one members and one guest were present.

The application for membership of Roy W. Donaldson was accepted by a unanimous vote. The application for membership of Dr. H. E. Richardson was read and referred to the investigating committee for approval.

Mr. Reidenbach proposed that the Detroit Coin Club have a roster made similar to that of the California Coin Club, showing the names and addresses of the members and their collecting specialty. Mr. Dodd, Librarian, announced that he had been planning such a roster and that same should include a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws and a short sketch of the Club, and asked for authority to go ahead with same, which was given. The Librarian turned in his seventh report.

Chairman announced that Librarian would take orders for the "Historical Arrangement of U. S. A. Commemorative Coins," published by the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences.

Mr. Hack warned the members about purchasing the Daniel Boone 1934-35 D and S mint commemorative half dollars from strangers. He reported on an experience of his recently in which a stranger offered him a pair of the coins for $50. Upon examination of the coins he reported that it was his opinion that the mint marks had been counterfeited on the Philadelphia half dollar of the same date.

John G. Watson, one of our honorary members, reported that on account of the ill health of Mrs. Watson he was returning to England shortly and offered to donate six items of books and catalogues to the club's library. The donations were accepted.

The Librarian requested that some one write a paper on the origin of the Detroit Coin Club to be placed in the Club's library, and the secretary was instructed to write to Mr. Hoare and ask him to prepare a short paper on its history.

A set of the Rhode Island commemorative half dollars, purchased at a cost of $8.00, was turned over to the librarian for the club's cabinet. A set of the Texas 1936 commemorative half dollars were turned over to the librarian for the club's cabinet, and same were passed out to all members present having same on standing order. A set of the Texas 1935 commemorative half dollars was turned over to the librarian to be auctioned at a later date.

PHILADELPHIA COIN CLUB—The tenth meeting of the Philadelphia Coin Club called to order by President Faucett, April 9. Twenty-five members were present. Three new members were admitted and a like number proposed for membership.

The president urged all members who could possibly attend the Hobby Show at the Franklin Institute (May 11 to 17) to display some of their collection as part of the club's contribution to the show. It will be a splendid opportunity to interest others in coin collecting and will be a means of advertising the club to Philadelphians.

Mr. Enburg told of his early start in collecting coins and objects of interest to him (minerals and butterflies). He is also interested in astronomy, and has given numerous lectures on this subject. An invitation was extended to each member and his family to call at his home to see his collections.

President Faucett announced a special meeting to be held on the night of the auction, two weeks after the present regular meeting, to appoint overseers for the club displays at the Hobby Show, and select the items to be used as representing the coin club's activities.

Mr. Davidson acted as auctioneer for the evening, and conducted a spirited and interesting auction.

HARTFORD NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—Twenty-second meeting, April 15. President Scott opened the meeting with fifteen present.

President Scott spoke briefly on German coinage and of the coming lecture on same by Mr. Grieb, one of the club members.

Messrs. Yokel, Miller and Nokes were appointed by the president as a commission to make up a resolution on the commemorative half dollars.

The regular club auction followed the business meeting.

---

NEW CASTLE COIN CLUB—May 4, President Tinstman, presiding, sixteen members were present.

Mr. Gibbs moved that the club purchase a copy of Scott's "Copper and Nickel Coins." Motion carried.

Mr. Kabealo, of the Youngstown Club, invited all members to attend the Youngstown meeting to be held on Thursday evening, May 7th.

Following the meeting Mr. Gibbs exhibited a newly acquired collection of silver coins. The feature of the evening, however, was a spirited auction of various coins, including 15 or 20 large cents.

Mr. McCormick was appointed chairman of the committee on auction sales.

Two new members were admitted to the club: S. R. Angel, Pasadena, Md., and J. J. O'Connor, Baltimore. Thomas Sprague made application for membership.

Mr. Cook reported he was designing an emblem for the club. It was voted that the central device for the emblem be similar to the Great Seal of Maryland.

The meeting was turned over to Mr. McCormick, in charge of the auction sale.

---

MILWAUKEE NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—Nineteenth meeting, April 24, called to order by the chairman, Mr. Burmeister, Jr. Seventeen members and one visitor were present.

Received one application for membership.

The card party given on the evening of April 15th was a 100 per cent. success.

A feature of the evening was two beautiful paintings, painted and donated by Eugene Knerr, one of our members, and given as prizes to the winners.

Exhibits were as follows:

Oklahoma and Missouri tax tokens, donated by H. Rowold, of Kansas City.

Set of Rhode Island commemorative half dollars, by H. Muegge.

Four dollars gold, 1879, by J. Stewart.

NEW JERSEY NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—Thirty-second meeting, May 14. The president, F. B. Nixdorff, presided. Twenty members and two guests were present. Three new members, D. Goldsmith, R. Stoddard and W. R. Hicks were elected.

A motion was made and carried that the secretary secure a ballot box so that future voting shall be by secret ballot.

Mr. Wade chairman of the publicity committee read several interesting items of recent numismatic value.

Vernon L. Brown gave a very interesting talk on scrip and emergency money of 1933. He stated that there were some two thousand specimens of emergency money issued by some four hundred different communities, comprising every State in the union and Hawaii. The amount issued in New Jersey was small compared to the remainder of the country. His talk was profusely illustrated by specimens of the various types issued.

A motion was made and carried that recent acquisitions by members be exhibited at each meeting.

The president appointed a committee of three members, composed of Mr. Blaisdell as chairman and Messrs. O'Malley and Nettleship, to draw up a code for future auctions held by the society.

The next meeting will be devoted to fractional currency, and an effort will be made to secure F. C. C. Boyd to discuss this subject.

Mr. Wade exhibited a number of pieces of satirical currency.

CHASE BANK COIN SOCIETY—April 16. President Robinson called for the report of the by-laws revision committee, and the chairman, V. L. Brown, read a draft of the new sections and pointed out the changes from the old by-laws. Changes were put in and the entire draft laid over to the May meeting for the second reading.

The topic of the day was "Half Cents of the United States," and a paper was read by Edward Phelps which gave the history of the mintages, pointing out the rare dates and the various types and varieties. A few displays were made by different members of the club.

After the adjournment the usual auction sale took place, bringing forth a number of fine specimens of silver three-cent pieces.

PACIFIC COAST NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—246th meeting called to order by President Wyman, March 25th. Sixteen members and five guests were present.

Mr. Hill, of the program committee, read the report of the committee, which was accepted with thanks.

Mr. Wernstrom reported for the banquet committee that it was their recommendation that the dinner be held at the Hotel Whitcomb, April 29th. The recommendation was accepted.

Mr. Webb spoke for the auction committee and stressed the fact that all they needed was some material for another auction.

Roy Hill spoke of the recent meeting of the Junior Coin Collectors and his privilege in having the opportunity to speak to them.

Mr. Wernstrom spoke regarding the A. N. A. and its place in the life of the collector.

The secretary distributed pamphlets of the Chase Collection of the Money of the World with the compliments of Founder Zerbe.

In honor of the Phoenix-like rise of the city of San Francisco after the earthquake and fire thirty years ago in April, the program was called: "San Francisco Numismatic Items." Roy Hill and W. G. Wilson both gave talks on the San Francisco Mint, both before and after the earthquake. President Wyman spoke on and developed his theory of the 1894 S dime. It is to be hoped that he will make this the subject of an article, as it is of interest to all collectors of American coins.

The meeting adjourned at 9.30 to afford the members an opportunity of inspecting the various San Francisco numismatic items on exhibit. Among others, Messrs. Wernstrom, Roy Hill and Williams had exhibits.

WASHINGTON NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—May 12, Edward L. Weikert, Jr., President, presiding. Eight members present.

Several letters received by the Secretary were read and action taken as to replies.

Mr. Klakring sent his regrets at not being able to attend and announced his return to the South for the summer months, but looked forward to being present at the meetings in the early fall.

A motion was made and passed to appoint a legislative committee of three to go before the Committee on Coinage regarding the minting of commemo-native coins. Messrs. Kohen, McArdle and Lippy were appointed on this committee.

President Weikert then read a report on commemorative coins, giving the date and number of each bill introduced in the House of Representatives and the Senate, the report, the passing, and signing by the President. This report will appear in detail in another part of The Numismatist.

After the reading of this report a general discussion on commemorative coins was held.

Mr. Zug showed a large collection of coins, among which were the new commemorative issues of Canada, England and New Zealand, which were struck in proof.

PITTSBURGH COIN CLUB—April 3rd, President Moudy in the chair. Thirteen members and three guests were present.

Mr. Gibbs presented the guest speaker of the evening, T. James Clarke, President of the American Numismatic Association. Mr. Clarke spoke of the affairs of the A. N. A. and the accomplishments of the last year. He also spoke on the much-discussed commemorative half-dollar situation. A motion was made and carried that President Clarke be made a life member of the Pittsburgh Coin Club, and we were honored at having him accept.

Mr. Gaede, a local coin dealer, spoke briefly.

Mr. Gibbs moved that members be asked to donate coins to be auctioned, the proceeds to be used for the club to become a life member of the A. N. A. Carried.

Several books were ordered to be purchased.

Mr. Gibbs, Jr., delivered a talk on "A Paper Money Collector's Viewpoint on Inflation." The talk was illustrated by an exhibit of inflationary paper money.

The meeting was adjourned for the inspection of the exhibits, which were as follows:

Mr. Clarke: U. S. notes.

Mr. Moudy: 1936 commemorative half dollars and several proof dollars.

Mr. Kays: A very beautiful Washington Peace Medal of 1792, presented by George Washington to the Indians.

Mr. Drew: German leather, silk and linen money, and German war and emergency money, 1914-1921, all attractively displayed in special holders.

Mr. Gaede: Proof 3c. nickels.

BROOKLYN COIN CLUB—37th regular meeting, May 6, President Reagan in the chair. Twenty-one members and five visitors were present.

Mr. Kraus reported that the U. S. Treasury will resume the striking of proof coins.

Andrew C. Semple was elected vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William R. Tait.

Max M. Schwartz was elected to membership.

Dr. Otto C. Risch and Joseph Isacowitz filed applications for membership.

A vote of thanks was extended to Nat. E. Heft for his generous contribution of a complete set of stationery and cuts to the club.

Charles Schmall read a paper on broken-bank bills and exhibited specimens of the earliest known attempts of two-color printing, which were of remarkable beauty.

Edward J. Shanahan read a very interesting paper on the coins of Channel Island and exhibited various specimens.

Ernest Kraus read a paper on the Panama-Pacific commemorative coin series and exhibited a set of these coins.

Mr. Funnell, of the Long Island Tercentenary Commission, delivered a very interesting address to the membership on the Long Island Tercentenary celebration and the half dollar which will be issued in connection with it.

The subject for the next meeting will be Swiss coins, to be given by Mr. Witterman. Russian coins, by Mr. Klaif. The Long Island half dollar, by Mr. Kraus, and Roman coins, by Mr. Reagan.

---

CALIFORNIA COIN CLUB—99th regular meeting. Twenty-six members and six guests were present. E. D. Krachey, president, in the chair.

After the routine business had been disposed of, Kenneth Lee introduced the speaker of the evening, Arthur C. Wyman, president of the Pacific Coast Numismatic Society, and R. A. Webb, of San Francisco, who accompanied him to Los Angeles for the occasion.

Mr. Wyman, who at one time formed an almost complete collection of nickel coins of the world, spoke on "Nickel for Coinage Purposes." He described the nickel coins of Bactria, issued about 200 B. C., and struck, presumably, from the so-called Chinese "white-copper," an alloy of nickel, copper and zinc. Then he told of the introduction of "white-copper" to Europe in 1775 and the resultant modern use of nickel for coinage purposes, at first alloyed with copper and after 1881 frequently in the pure state. Finally he spoke of the enjoyment to be secured at a small cost by the forming of a collection of nickel-bearing coins.

Mr. Krachey displayed a fine collection of various Spanish-American silver coins, dollar and half dollar size, several French medals, and a distinguished service medal of the Southern California Edison Company, of which a very few have been issued.

Dr. Harbeck will hold the speaker's chair at the meeting on June 2. Subject unannounced.

A splendid auction followed.

OHIO STATE NUMISMATIC SOCIETY—The Ohio State Numismatic Society, Inc., held a two-day convention in Columbus, Ohio, on April 4 and 5. Dr. J. M. Henderson, president, ventured out for the first time in eight weeks to attend the sessions. He had been confined to his bed with pneumonia. Everyone was delighted when Henry Hunt, Chairman of the Board of Governors, A. N. A., walked into the Neil House to attend the convention. All his friends were pleased to know that he, too, has nearly recovered from his recent illness.

In spite of severe weather, the convention was very well attended by collectors from all parts of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. The Society was favored by the attendance of T. James Clarke, Howard Hibbs, James Macallister, B. Max Mehl and Barney Bluestone. Needless to say, everyone enjoyed visiting with old and new friends, with coins the general topic of discussion.

At the banquet Saturday night President Clarke and Chairman Hunt spoke of the progress being made on the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the A. N. A., aiming toward more efficient operation of the Association.

An enthusiastic interest was displayed in the exhibits and a number of record highs realized in the auction sale.

The following trustees were elected for the coming year: H. A. Brand, Fred Burton, C. J. Molnar, Dr. J. M. Henderson and J. A. Dawson. At a meeting of the trustees Dr. Henderson was reelected president; Mr. Molnar, vice-president; Mr. Brand, treasurer; Mr. Dawson, secretary, and Mr. Burton, curator.

TRI-STATE COIN AND STAMP CONVENTION.

The seventh annual Tri-State (New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania) Coin and Stamp Convention will be held at the Hotel Jamestown, Jamestown, N. Y., June 12 and 13, 1936. Coins, stamps, medals, Indian relics, manuscripts, firearms, early glassware and curios of every description, etc., will be on exhibition. An auction sale of coins will be held on Saturday morning and a sale of stamps on Saturday afternoon. A banquet will be held Saturday night.

LATE COIN NEWS.

The bill authorizing the Antietam half dollar passed the House on May 20. The authorized issue is 25,000 pieces.

The last two bills introduced for commemorative coins contain a clause that the coins authorized shall be of a special single design. From this it would appear that the plan to have five different reverses for the Texas half dollar and three for the Arkansas coin is not popular with members of Congress.

AT OUR LAST CONFERENCE

Morton Stack suggested "We Buy Choice Large Cents and Colonials."

Shirley Stack insisted "We Buy Commemoratives, Proofs and Uncirculated Small Cents."

Jos. B. Stack thought that "We can use a number of Proof Sets, Foreign and U. S. Gold Coins."

To keep "Peace in the Family" we decided to buy any of the above coins, either in collections or your duplicates.

RHODE ISLAND TERCENTENARY MEDALS

Obverse

Reverse

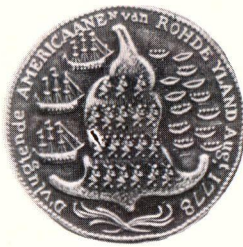

Whitehead and Hoag have produced for us what I believe to be the most beautiful Commemorative Coin ever struck. The obverse shows the Landing of Roger Williams. The reverse has the official seal of the Tercentenary Commission. This beautiful medal is struck with a polished gold finish.

Mailed direct to you postage prepaid for .....15c.
Ten or more to one person.....10c. each—postage extra.
Special price in quantity to Dealers on application.

The Battle of Rhode Island “Admiral Howe Medal”

Obverse

Reverse

This historical medal, said to have been struck in Holland a great many years ago, has always been an interesting piece for the Collector.

Obverse shows Admiral Howe's flagship.

Reverse shows the Island of Rhode Island with Admiral Howe's fleet. The original medals, of which there are but a very few, sell for from $5.00 to $10.00 each. At considerable expense I have had dies made and the well known firm, The Robbins Company of Attleboro, Mass., are reproducing the medal for me. To avoid confusion in years to come as to which of these medals is the original, I have had the die cutter engrave the initials H. M. G. on the crest of the wave, under the Admiral Howe battleship. With each medal sold I will mail free a brief history of the medal as it appears in "American Colonial History of Contemporary Medals" by C. Wyllys Betts.

Price of this medal struck in bronze .....$1.00 each

A very limited number struck in silver ..... 2.50 each

DATED AUCTION

JUNE 27, 1936

A number of out-of-town collectors have visited us. Requests have been made that we extend our auction so as to enable collectors from other parts of the country to bid by mail. Lots listed below will be sold through our daily auction on June 27, 1936. All lots listed will be on display in our auction rooms. Mail your bids early. If two or more high bidders are tied, the lot will go to the earliest bidder. Sales are for cash. We urge collectors who have not previously bid in our auction to supply references so that early credit relations can be established. The usual charge of 5 per cent. will be made on all lots for packing expenses; postage extra on all shipments. We solicit auction consignments.

| Why not complete your set of Lin-coln cents NOW, because they are go-ing sky high. I would appreciate yourwant list. |            |

I still have all the Lincoln cents as listed in my ad. in the April issue. No increase in prices.

RARE TEXAS REPUBLIC NOTES

$10.00 bill of 1838 of the Government of Texas, signed by Sam Houston, Pres., and Henry Smith, Treasurer. These autographs as plain as though just written. Houston's autograph alone is worth $10. Cut canceled through both signatures. About perfect, unc., very rare in this condition. Price $15.

Set of Republic of Texas Notes

$1.00 to $500.00—nine bills in all. All bills with cut cancel. The cond. will average fine. Price for the set, $17.50.

$5.00 bill of Government of Texas, signed by Sam Houston and Henry Smith. Names barely discernable with cut cancel. Part of cut cancel gone. Condition good. Price, $4.75.

RARE NOTES OF OHIO

Worthington, Ohio—Part of a set of the rare Ezra Griswold notes dated 1818-19. 6¼c., 12½c., 25c., 50c., $1.00. These notes are exceptionally rare items. The five bills (cond. good to X. F.) priced $5.50.

REVOLUTIONARY COINS OF MEXICO

Un Peso of Oaxaca (Wood No. 155), condition fine, $1.00.

5 centavo (brass), Wood No. 29, 1 centavo (aluminum) Wood No. 45 of Durango, 1914. Both coins br., unc. Set of two coins only 50c.

I have an unlimited amount of cash ready for the immediate purchase of coins and stamps. Especially want any Unc. small cents and proof trade dollars.

COMMEMORATIVE HALF-DOLLARS

These coins will all be made at one mint (probably Philadelphia mint). We anticipate making distribution in June. We are ready to accept orders, cash with order, at the following prices:

|                        |             |        |
|------------------------|-------------|--------|
| 1 coin, $1.65 each.   | Total ..... | $1.65 |
| 2 coins, $1.60 each.  | Total ..... | 3.20   |
| 3 coins, $1.58 each.  | Total ..... | 4.74   |
| 5 coins, $1.56 each.  | Total ..... | 7.80   |
| 10 coins, $1.55 each. | Total ..... | 15.50  |

Above prices include packing, postage and insurance.

After reserving a sufficient number of coins to sell within the Exposition Grounds and through the Ohio banks the supply of these coins will be very limited. Order now so you will not be disappointed. We anticipate the entire issue will be sold within three days after they are offered for public sale at Ohio banks.

Mint Record and Type Table U. S. Coins

After this book was advertised in April issue of The Numismatist I decided to include Private Gold, Encased Postage Stamps and Fractional Currency to the regular issues of U. S. Coins. All of these (except Fractional Currency) will have each type illustrated.

Such major varieties as the Half Dime 1796 6 over 5, Quarter Eagle 1861 D Mint, as well as the Bechtler Gold Dollar and Encased Postage of H. A. Cook, illustrated above, are all listed with space to enter cost of each variety, making this the most complete book of its kind published to date.

Gives number of coins struck at each mint, 1793 to 1935, inclusive, as well as the approximate number known to exist of many rare coins.

Where no coins are known to exist though shown in Treasurer's report (as the 1805 Silver Dollar), this fact is noted, as well as where coins are known to exist though not listed on Treasurer's report (as the Quarter Eagles of 1839-C and 1845-O mints.)

Commemorative Gold and Silver in one section showing number coined of each issue, also number melted, and number remaining. This applies to Gold as well as Silver.

Publication date has been delayed due to adding Private Gold, Fractional Currency, and Encased Postage Stamps and illustrating each type (except Fractional Currency).

May 1st the price was advanced to $1.75 (postpaid), due to added cost in making the above mentioned changes. Those who ordered in April will receive their copy for the original price of $1.00.

If you want this book write a card and ask to have your name put on the list, to be notified when book is ready. Then remit when you have been notified. THANK YOU.

WALTER F. WEBB

Box 1854

St. Petersburg, Florida,

Always has for sale a good collection of the coins of the world and is in the market to buy more for cash.

If you have a real collection, send it to me for appraisal and I will tell you promptly what it will bring. I need as large sets as possible of U. S. Silver and Foreign Gold. Also will take a fine collection of Roman and Greek coins if properly labeled.

Commemoratives do not interest me to any great extent. When I wish to speculate I always buy good stocks on the N. Y. Stock Exchange and pay for them. No man ever lost anything in the long run being a Bull on America. The public will hold the bag on commemoratives later on.

My home in the Sunshine City this summer is at 2822 Second Ave. North, and you will usually find me there, either working 15 hours a day or sitting in the shade. Write me if you buy coins, and maybe we can do some business.

COINS OF THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

The coins of these Islands are all too frequently overlooked by collectors of the U. S. coin series, particularly in view of the fact that the period of direct tie-up between the United States and the Philippines has drawn to a close. This change in the governmental setup of the Philippines will bring a change in coinage designs and the gradual elimination of the coins issued under direct U. S. control. There have been, in all, seven different denominations to the coinage of these Islands, all bearing the inscription "United States of America," and the American shield surmounted by an eagle on the reverse. These pieces are available in very fine condition at the following prices:
